Day Day 1

Description: -

Day 1: Rishikesh to Lohajung

Distance covered: 225 km Drive

The journey for Brahmatal trek sets into motion from Rishikesh, and therefore you arrive at Rishikesh railway station or bus stand early morning. You shall be picked up from there and once all the enthusiastic trekkers have gathered, we shall leave for Lohagunj.

Lohagunj is 225 KM away from Kathgodam and it shall be a 9-hour drive. Lohagunj is located in the Chamoli district of Uttrakhand. On our way, we shall witness the mountain towns of Devprayag, karnprayag, Rudraprayag etc. We will arrive at Lohagunj in the evening. Lohagunj offers itself as a small marketplace for the nearby towns of Curling, Mundoli, and Wan. During dinner time, The trek leader briefs us about what the course of the journey shall be for the next day. After this, we can tuck ourselves in our cozy beds to rest and prepare for the exciting journey which shall follow.

Day 2: Lohajung to Bekaltal

Distance covered: 8 Km Trek

We will wake up and prepare ourselves to finally begin our much-awaited exciting experience. The Brahmatal Trek shall commence after a healthy breakfast. Ensure that you have packed well and are carrying water, energy bars, and other essentials that might come in handy during the trek.

We shall leave the villages behind and trek towards the oak and fir forests. You will experience the most mesmerizing view as you walk on the trail amidst rhododendrons which are heavily laden with red flowers in the months between February and April. You shall witness the towering Nandaghunti Peak.

The first segment of the Brahmatal Trek shall conclude in 4-5 hours as we reach our base camp at the magnificent Bekaltal Lake. Here, we will finally set up our tents for the night and experience the fun of lakeside camping. You shall have ample time to indulge in fun activities and with fresh snow around; go ahead make that snowman and play snow-ball fighting to your heart's delight. Shutterbugs can get the most exotic shots of the frozen lake and oak forests and nature lovers are in for a time of their lives. Dinner and Overnight stat ay Tents.
